The meeting began at 7:30, at Isa Vogel's home. A pot luck supper was enjoyed by all and the official agenda was started at 8:00. The following people were in attendance: Maxine, Lisa, Steven, Ellen, Phyllis, Arleen, Judith, Andi, Isa, Devorah and Liz (a guest).The meeting closed at 9:30

*****

Business

Lisa presented the calendar - illustrated by Hazel - and created by Maxine, Cathy and Devorah. They will be mailed to members who were absent after the next meeting.
Maxine described future programs and talked about next month's program which is to be presented by Maxine and Arleen. It is based on collaborative art journals. Each person will make a page from fabric and mixed media for embellishment. Bring to the meeting needles, scissors, embellishments, beads, lace, woven pieces, etc. Fabrics will be provided. The book, Collaborative Journals by L.K. Ludwig is our resource.
Isa presented the Guild Challenge. Everybody selected 2 ideas to weave from cards. Please see Isa if you were not at the meeting.
The sale scheduled for November was announced. See Karen for an application. Some money from the proceeds is being donated back to the Guild.
The treasury has $2,086.26 and Steve collected dues - $25 for local members and $10 for the others.
Ellen is going to do a bead/jewelry session for the December meeting.
Everyone is bringing their round robin weaving from last June's workshop to the next meeting

Show and Tell

Nina showed face pillows and a beautiful quilt top.
Phyllis presented a handmade album about her summer motorcycle trip to South Dakota. She was in a tornado!
Maxine attended a conference in New Mexico and showed samples of painted warp. She brought a lovely blanket she is knitting for her granddaughter. She is expecting a grandson!

Judith brought a handmade album about her trip to Nantucket/Cape Cod.
Isa reported on the conference she went to on Wigby Island. She brought samples of her printed and shibori work.
Arleen brought a completed beaded bound book.

That's all folks, more pix next time.

.